VIP Services clients face all of the challenges of daily living that each of us confront and they all grapple with the additional challenges that their individual disabilities layer on to day-to-day existence. Members of both our Board of Directors and our 2014 Golf Committee are constantly inspired by their inspirational efforts and achievements and wanted to share a few of their Medal winning stories (see attachment).

Your support of these efforts through your participation as a MEDAL SPONSOR AT THE 16TH ANNUAL VIP SERVICES GOLF OUTING will go a long way toward continuing to help the clients we serve have the opportunity to be the very best that they can be.

*Tim
Williams*

Tim Williams has a great sense of humor and laughs easily. Despite the multiple disabilities and significant challenges Tim faces daily, he has a capacity to make everyone around him chuckle and feel good.

Tim, who was not born with disabilities, had his life changed forever when as an elementary school student he suffered severe brain injury as the result of a freak traffic accident.

Since 2004, Tim has been involved with VIP's Day Services program. Though he uses a specialized wheelchair and his physical disabilities significantly limit his body movements, it doesn't mean that he doesn't pay attention to what is going on in the world.

Tim is a huge Packer fan and follows the team closely. No one in Wisconsin was more pleased than he when the Packers defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers to win the Super Bowl in February 2010.

Tim has a great sense of humor, laughs easily and loves silly jokes. He participates in Day Services activities with assistance and especially enjoys community outings. He works hard on range of motion activities and answers questions by blinking his eyes yes and no.

Amanda Giacomelli

Amanda Giacomelli wasn't born with a disability, but after a horrific automobile accident when she was 2½ years old, she was forced to start the learning process all over again. With the dedicated support of her family she made great strides and ultimately graduated from Elkhorn High School.

After graduation, Amanda sought assistance with job placement and job coaching with VIP Services. She started out working in day care settings, but it became clear that she would not be able to support herself in this way.

After working with staff to consider various alternatives, in 2004 she got a full time job at Walmart in Delavan. During her time there Amanda has applied herself diligently and developed many new life and work coping skills.

Today, Amanda is proud to tell you that she lives independently in her own condo, has been recognized as Employee of the Month at Walmart and receives excellent annual reviews from her supervisors.

In addition, Amanda has taken on the challenge of becoming a very effective VIP Services Ambassador.

Scott Bushey

Scott Bushey has earned a reputation as a hard worker, as well as being extremely reliable; he is always caring towards others and willing to lend a helping hand.

Scott started at VIP Services in 1988 after graduating from Lakeland School and, in the years since, has worked at a variety of jobs in the VIP production center. His mother says that even when he is on vacation he worries about how things are going at work. He has been known to call in the middle of a trip just to make sure that everything is okay. She says that one of her biggest challenges is to convince him to stay home when he isn't feeling well - he HATES to miss work!

In addition to his work at the production center, Scott has a seasonal job with Covenant Harbor, a nonprofit retreat center for youth, adults and families on Lake Geneva. With support from his VIP Services job coach, he washes dishes, sets tables, fills ice and drink machines and does a number of other jobs.

Scott and his family are delighted that the flexibility and diversity of VIP Services allows him to work productively 5 days a week. He is very proud of his paychecks and loves the opportunity to work with so many good friends.
